

HEALING SUMMIT THE HEALING OF EVERYTHING

Founded in 2014, the annual global two-day conference HEALING SUMMIT gathers forward-thinking pioneers striving for a holistic approach to life and business, with the aim to support each other and to create a global community dedicated to doing good.

The HEALING SUMMIT, an initiative of Healing Hotels of the World, a global brand for hotels and resorts committed to holistic health, offers personal transformation and inspiring knowledge about a healing world

Based on the understanding that healing and doing good starts with each individual, the HEALING SUMMIT is also a unique opportunity to experience world class practitioners and healers that foster personal transformation way beyond the two days of the conference.

The HEALING SUMMIT is about the healing of everything, which was the title of the 2022 conference. Topics range from to the necessary change in our culture when it comes to business and economics for the survival of the planet and a just world, the new paradigm of human behaviour driven from permaculture and the indigineous approach to nature, the holistic approach to health and different healing modalities - to name only a few. Speakers and delegates alike share their expertise and personal stories on how to live a holistic life, personally and professionally.
